

Family Charities Ethical Trust Fund Factsheet.

When you invest with OneFamily, your money buys units or shares in one or more funds. The purpose of this factsheet is to give you information to help you understand how the investment works. If there are any terms you do not understand, please see our “Useful definitions” document, which is available on the fund factsheet section of our website at onefamily.com.

Where is the fund invested?

The Family Charities Ethical Trust aims to achieve growth by investing mainly in UK shares of companies that make up the FTSE4Good UK 50 Index in order to closely follow its performance.

Different ethical funds have different investment criteria. To be included in the FTSE4Good UK 50 Index, companies need to demonstrate that they are working towards:

Environmental sustainability	Adapting to and mitigating climate change	Countering bribery
Upholding and supporting universal human rights	Ensuring good supply-chain labour standards

The Index also avoids investment in companies involved in tobacco production, weapon systems and controversial weapons (including nuclear power).

What are the risks?

We invest in stocks and shares because we believe there is good potential for growth over the long-term. However, there is no guarantee that this will happen and the value of the investment can fall as well as rise. This means that it is possible to get back less than has been paid in.

Because the Family Charities Ethical Trust follows an Index which has ethical criteria and uses ethical screening, we cannot invest in certain sectors and companies. This could mean the fund carries greater risk than a fund which has no such restrictions. You can find more information about the ethical criteria of the FTSE4Good UK 50 Index at ftse.com.

Additionally, the Family Charities Ethical Trust may use derivatives when managing the risk or cost of the fund or to try to generate additional income. This could mean the fund carries greater risk than a fund which does not use derivatives for this purpose. More information about derivatives and their risks can be found on our website at onefamily.com/derivatives or you can contact us for further details.
