My finances

Everything in one place

Whether it's completing your tax return or just getting your financial affairs in order, it's really useful to have all the information in one place.

To help ease this task, we've produced this booklet to help you keep a record of:

- Key contacts such as your solicitor, broker, accountant and mortgage provider
- Your bank and building society account details, credit cards and any loans
- All of your financial assets, be those cash savings, stocks and shares, bonds or mutual funds
- Details of your pensions and any properties you own
- Your insurance policies (e.g. buildings, contents, life and protection insurance)
- Your utility providers (e.g. energy, water and telecoms) and local council
- Other contracts such as any club memberships and other subscriptions
- The executors of your will, any power of attorneys and your desired funeral arrangements

If you need any further information or have a query regarding your policy or other policies with us, please don't hesitate to get in touch by either calling us on 0344 8920 920 or email us at customerservices@onefamily.com.

If you require this booklet, or any other correspondence from us in a different format (e.g. large format print), please let us know.

This form contains personal information, please ensure you keep it securely locked away in a safe place.

Funeral Arrangements

You may not want to think about what will happen after you die and the thought of putting it down in writing can be upsetting. The death of someone special can be a time of great distress for the bereaved, especially if they don't know of your wishes. By making your wishes for your funeral known beforehand, you can lessen the stress for those you leave behind. The following form may be of help to you.

You do not have to fill out all or any of the questions asked below, but the more you do answer, the more helpful it will be for your next of kin.
